

RVAA President Mike McKay Awarded RVDA Honor

RVDA Chairman of the Board Jeff Pastore of Hartville RV Center, Inc., in Hartville, OH, honored five individuals on Sept. 24 for their service to RV dealers with RVDA Chairman's Service Awards. The Chairman's Service Award recognizes people who have made a significant contribution to RVDA over an extended period of time. RVAA's President Mike McKay was awarded the honor as one of the five recipients. Mr. McKay is Executive Vice President, Stag-Parkway, Atlanta, GA and is current RVAA President. "During Mike's tenure, cooperation between RVDA and RVAA continues at a very high level," said Pastore. "RVAA now has a regular column in RV Executive Today that focuses on the importance of AfterMarket products as a profit center for dealers and service to customers. He also served as a key member of the Committee on Excellence's Replacement Parts Availability task force, whose recommendations play a critical role in meeting the needs of customers."

Additional recipients included: Peter Albano – President, American RV, Olive Branch, MS

Peter Albano serves on the Board of Directors, was a longtime Mississippi delegate, and serves on the Education Foundation Board. He is on his second tour of duty serving dealers on the RVDA Board of Directors and currently serves as secretary. Bill Koster, VP RV & Specialty Products, Protective Asset Protection Div, St. Louis, MO Bill Koster currently serves on the RVDA Education Foundation Board of Directors as secretary/treasurer.

Lindsey Reines – Reines RV Center, Manassas, VA. Lindsey Reines is a member of the RVDA Board Delegates. He also served as member of the Committee on Excellence Product Quality task force. Cloyce Hutton, Hutton's RV Center, Inc., Urbana, IA

As a retiring dealer, Cloyce Hutton received a special award for a lifetime of outstanding contributions that may equal several lifetimes for others.
