

2008 Jim Barker/Person of the Year - Nomination Form

The Jim Barker Memorial Award (“Person of the Year”) is an award given at RVAA’s Executive Conference to an individual who has made contributions to RVAA and the industry above and beyond the ordinary. The recipient is typically a person of outstanding character, integrity and is a humanitarian.

Although the award is not given every year, it remains a most coveted achievement. The association’s Awards Committee has requested that every RVAA member have an opportunity to nominate a candidate for this prestigious honor. The qualifications for the award are as follows:

The individual will have worked enthusiastically on behalf of the RVAA for many years. He or she will have dedicated both time and money in spearheading projects and programs aimed at improving the RV Aftermarket Association. He or she should have served on either the Board of Directors or chaired an Association Committee. He or she should have organized various Association events important to their and the Association’s aftermarket business. His or her dedication to improve the RV industry should be obvious not only to the nominator, but to many of the awardee’s colleagues and contemporaries.

In short, a person who has earned the respect of all due to their efforts to improve not only his or her business, but also the total industry as a whole. Please nominate a potential candidate for this award by completing the nomination information below.
